Hello, any help would be greatly appreciated.

I'm working for the TV production company Shiver and we are currently making an observational documentary series about people (or families) that are severely overweight and cannot get a job because of it.

If you are struggling with your weight and find it difficult to get a job because of your size, or if you perhaps know someone this is happening to, please get in touch. We want to hear your story.

Contact me via e-mail - callum.brennan@itv.com - if you wish to discuss the programme further or if you would like to be part of it.

All correspondence will be treated with complete confidentiality.

Thanks for your time,
Callum
